ANNOUNCEMENTS

Jan asked for prayers for our member Laura Jane Elder who is in poor health.

Karen Barnes recommended an interesting article she received online by Jeff Steen “The Search for Primavera” in which the author relates a visit to the South Texas Childrens Home in Beeville.

Jama Brown announced Tony Romo is the new Texas Beef spokesperson.

Diana announced we have 100 members now.

Linda Landrum instructed new members on Amazon Smile.

Linda Landrum reminds us there is an up to date member roster on the website.

OLD BUSINESS

D'Ann Leonard says she has 400 invitations to give out, and has today sent out an email and a text with her phone number and email address so members can send her their lists. If you know someone who is not a member, but should be, reach out to them or give her contact info and she will reach out.

Jan encourages making a donation even if you are unable to attend. D'Ann said there will be no raffle, just a silent and live auction, managed by Diana Ridgway. Diana read off a list of items already donated, and asked for more.

NEW BUSINESS

Briscoe Western Art Museum "Night of Artists" is March 25-26. Volunteer link:

<https://bit.ly/volunteernoaa>. Or contact member Meredith Balzem or Jan.

Krystal Upchurch introduced member Allison Howard, who makes personalized STCW tumblers. There is a sign up list at front desk if you would like to order one. Payment due in advance.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:45 for Lunch and Program.

PROGRAM

Susanna McIntyre talked about being a junior in Animal Science at Texas A&M.

Mikayla and Mikki Zinsmeyer updated us on their recent activities.
