ANNOUNCEMENTS

Jan announced the Briscoe Night of Artists is this weekend, but she believes it is already sold out and they have enough volunteers. She encouraged us to consider volunteering in the future.

OLD BUSINESS

Spikes & Spurs:

Holly reported 60 event tickets have been sold. She said they have some businesses actively selling tickets for us. She said the committee has decided to have a live auction at the event after all as some really good items have been donated. Call Holly, Priscilla or D'Ann if you would like to help by selling tickets in your area. They can help with tickets, Beef promotion items, and advertising banners.

NEW BUSINESS

Jan said May 20, Saturday was set for a ranch day at the Vesper ranch to start at 9 or 10 and last until 3 pm. Lunch will be catered by Kelly Vesper. We need to get young people to attend. Jan will check with Kelly to see if flyers should be put up at the Cotulla schools.

Jan reported the meal for next month's meeting will be $20-$25 at the Chaparrosa Ranch.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:43 for Program. Lunch on our own, although Chloe provided a beautiful smorgasbord of cured meats from the store with cheese and crackers.
