ANNOUNCEMENTS

Jan read our statement of Mission that was prepared for the annual TCW meeting, and a summary of our activities for the past year.

She also read a recent note from Dorothy Kinsel thanking us for flowers. She is still in rehab in San Antonio.

Jan talked about the East Foundation and their contributions to Agriculture.

Diana Ridgway informed us we are still unable to do anything for Service Members.

NEW BUSINESS

Jan reminded the group to be sure to vote, and said the following propositions benefit Agriculture and should be voted "Yes": Propositions 1,2,4,5,8,9,10,11,13,14,16,17

Merrill Ellis announced San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo is having a New World Screwworm information session Oct 28 6 pm Freeman Coliseum grounds in Keith Martin Auction Barn. Speakers include Dr. Neil Wilkins and Dr. Jason Sawyer of the East Foundation.

Discussion on the proposed CPS power lines for the Hill Country was held.

OLD BUSINESS

Heart of the Vaqueras Priscilla Parsons stated that Melody Langston has volunteered to be 3rd chair on the HOV committee. She said the “seed money” raffle will be held at the Briscoe BBQ again this year. 3 Awards will each include an ice chest and a $200 gift card for Beef from Cattlemen’s Beef, Primo Processing or HEB; as well as other items. Tickets will be $50 each.

Jan discussed the cowhide fundraiser for Casey Matzke, ANCW President-elect.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:30 for program and lunch.
